

Town of Bennington Open Position

The Town of Bennington is seeking qualified candidates for the position of Water Division – Water/Distribution System Operator. This position primarily involves maintenance and repair of the water distribution system which includes a water filtration plant and several pump stations.

Qualifications include, at a minimum, a high school diploma, a Class 4C Vermont Water Certification or the ability to obtain one within 24 months following date of hire, and must possess a Vermont Commercial driver's license maintained in good standing with 2 years of driving experience. Class B license is required. Class A must be obtained within (6) months of employment.

A complete job description is available on the Town of Bennington's website at www.benningtonvt.org. Applications may be obtained at the Bennington Town Offices, Reception. Applications and resumes should be sent to the Town Manager's Office, ATTN: Human Resources, 205 South Street, P.O. Box 469, Bennington, Vermont, 05201. Closing date for applications is November 27, 2017 at 5 PM.

Bennington is an EOE employer. The Town of Bennington does not discriminate against a qualified individual with a disability in the admission or access to, or treatment or employment in, its programs or activities.